

Name : Dista Ayu Tri Anggraini R.H.S

NIM : K2217027 / A

Vocabulary Mastery : Learning Nature by Coloring a Picture

Subject : Teaching Vocabulary

Time allocation : 45 minutes

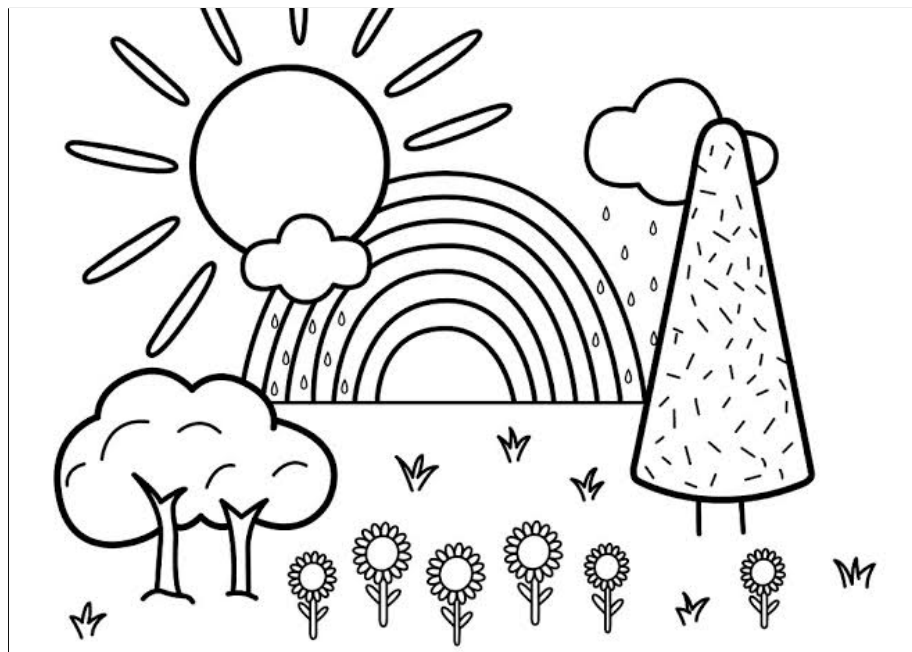

Objectives : Students are be able to guess, point, and remember some new vocabularies.

Structure : Teacher asks the students to say some of the sentences below using tones and repeat them at least three times.

- "What is this?"
- "This is sun"
- "Let's color the sun"
- "Where is the sun?"
- "Here is the sun"

Target vocab : Sun, rainbow, cloud, tree, and flower.

Media : Crayon and black & white nature picture.

Lesson Overview :

1. Warm up : Students listen and follow teacher' s instructions.
2. New learning and practices : The teacher invites students to mention natural objects and color them.
3. Wrap up : The teacher invites students to repeat the name of natural objects that have been colored.

Lesson Procedure :

Opening :

- The teacher greets the students and asks about their conditions.
- The teacher checks student attendance by asking students "Does anyone know where is (for example) Ali?" use tone.
- The teacher invites students to do some pat or sing a song to increase their spirit.

1. Warm up : Students listen and follow teacher' s instructions.
 - Teacher asks students to make a semi-circle position and then the teacher in the middle with some pictures.
 - Teacher gives explanation that he/she has a surprise which is the picture.
 - Teacher invites students to say "Let me see, please!" using tone and followed by all students.
 - Teacher shows the picture with a surprised expression and made a drum-like sound.
 - The teacher said that he/she has some pictures to color and asked the students "Are you happy?".
 - The teacher invites students to say "Yes I am happy" using a tone and followed by all students.
 - The teacher asks students to stand up and line up to take pictures held by the teacher, one by one.

- The teacher asks each student to take their own crayons.

2. New learning and practices : The teacher invites students to mention natural objects and color them.

- The teacher asked students "What is this?" using tone, while pointing at one object.
- The teacher invites students to say "This is sun" using tone.
- The teacher and students do all the activities until all the objects are mentioned.
- The teacher says that all natural objects are sad because they lose their color.
- The teacher mentions one name of natural objects that must be colored by saying "Let's color the sun" using tone.
- The teacher and students do all these activities until all objects are colored.

3. Wrap up : The teacher invites students to repeat the name of natural objects that have been colored.

- The teacher asks students to pointing a natural object mentioned by the teacher.
- The teacher asks "Where is the sun?" use tone and followed by all students.
- The teacher invites students to say "Here is the sun" using tone.
- The teacher repeats all the activities with the students until all the natural objects are mentioned.
- The teacher says all natural objects are now happy because they have their colors back.
- The teacher asks students to stick their pictures on the classroom wall.

Closing :

- The teacher said that it was time to go home.
- The teacher invites students to sing Sayo Nara and say goodbye.